

ACTOR BRECKIN MEYER COMING TO MOTOR CITY COMIC CON

Appearing at the Suburban Collection Showplace

October 15-17, 2021

NOVI, MI. (July 9, 2021) – Motor City Comic Con, Michigan’s longest and largest comic and pop-culture event, is pleased to announce actor, musician, writer, and producer, Breckin Meyer will attend this year’s convention October 15 – 17th at the Suburban Collection Showplace. Meyer will be available all three days for autographs ($50) and professional photo ops ($60.) Meyer adds to the list of recently announced guest appearances including Mario Lopez and Denis Lawson. To purchase tickets and for more information, please visit www.MotorCityComicCon.com

Breckin Meyer is known for his roles in films such as Clueless (1995), Road Trip (2000), Rat Race (2001), and Garfield: The Movie (2004). He’s also known for providing voices for the television series Robot Chicken (2005–present) and for voicing Joseph Gribble in King of The Hill (2000–2010). Meyer played several roles as a druggie, starting with his debut in Freddy's Dead: The Final Nightmare (1991), in which he was dispatched in a video game. His breakthrough screen role was in the teen hit Clueless (1995) as the skateboarding stoner. Meyer offered similar characterizations in The Craft and John Carpenter's Escape from L.A. (both 1996). He played the best friend of an Olympic hopeful in the biopic Prefontaine (1997) and as a high-school student yearning to leave his hometown in Dancer, Texas Pop. 81 (1998). In 54 (also 1998), a look at life in the famous '70s nightspot Studio 54, the actor was cast as a busboy married to the coat check girl and pursued by a bartender. Meyer is close friends with Phillippe, with whom he and Seth Green share a production company.

Motor City Comic Con’s annual event takes place every May and because of the health restrictions, the 2021 event was moved to October 15-17, 2021. The convention will return to being hosted annually in May, in 2022. Both events will take place at the Suburban Collection Showplace in Novi. The biggest and baddest weekend in Michigan will feature actors from the television, movie, and streaming industry, along with the most creative artists, writers, and comic book creators in the industry.

An added convenience feature this year for guests to avoid the long admission lines, will be RFID wristbands! RFID wristbands are available for purchase and mailed to homes for an additional $15 fee. Fans who purchase these RFID wristbands and have them mailed prior to the con will not have to wait in any lines before entering the convention and get a faster start to their Motor City Comic Con experience. This option allows guests to skip registration by simply putting on the wristband before entering the show.
